STOCKS IN THE EAST

Lively Selling Makes Entire List Give Way.

WEEK SHOWS ACTIVITY

PROFESSIONALS HAVE MANIPU-LATED MARKET BOTH WAYS.

New York, Oct. 27.-There was a very manifest disposition to sell stocks to take profits today. The appearance of unexpectedly favorable bank stateof unexpectedly favorable bank statement gave a momentary check to the downward movement, but the rally was taken advantage of to increase the selling, and the whole list gave way, closing weak and at the lowest price. Net losses of between one and two points losses of between one and two points are recorded in not a few stocks, by industrial and railroads lists. The former department was the greater sufferer. Some stocks had a period of strength after the opening notably Sugar, Brooklyn Transit and Metropolitan Street Railway, which same stocks were mostly affected by the late selling movement. The iron and steel stocks as a group were weak, in spite of encouraging reports of the industry in the weekly commercial reviews. Several of them suffered to the extent of 1 to 5% per cent. In the railroad list the most conspicuous selling was in ends of the paper closely and pack the grapes away in a box or basket, put in a cool, dark place, that is also dry. By this simple means grapes may be kept for the holidays and even until St. Valentine's day. Banana Export Duty Onl.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Consul General McNally at Guatemala writes to the state department that the Guatemalan government has issued a decree permitting the exportation of fresh fruits from the country free of all fiscal duty. This revokes a governmental decree of recent date, which placed a duty of 10 cents on each bunch of bananas exported.

Simplest Way to Can Grapes.

Select the grapes not too ripe, pick from stems carefully and pack in cans as closely as may be without breaking the skins, make a syrup of haif a cup of sugar and a cup of water, and pour over the fruit; if this amount of syrup does not flush the can add more water until it does, then put the top on can without screwing down, set the cans in a boiler, upon folded towels, pieces of lath, shingies—anything to keep the cans from touching the bottom of the boiler-pour in water quite hot to come up on the cans some two or three inches, place the cover on the boiler and place boiler over the fire, bring water to a boil and let it boil for an hour, remove the cans, put on the rubbers, screw the tops down and put away. Grapes put up this way retain their fresh, delictious taste, and are so easy to preserve that the veriest novice cannot fail. Simplest Way to Can Grapes.

Lyons, Oct. 27.—The Nouveliste de Licen says a plot to assassinate President Loubet has been discovered. It appears that a working electrician named Coulturier entered the electric company's premises at Nimes, stealing 2,500 francs. He was tracked to Or-hided hearers were in favor of receiving what money "Sir Claude" had about him and letting him go.

He put up £25 on the table, and then some one suggested that they should also have his horse and trap. As this belonged to another victim, the prisoner made no demur, and he was set at liberty, his victims actually returning 10s to him to get to London.

It was a year after these events that the bogus baronet was captured, and then he boasted that when he left Saxmundham he had some sovereigns hidden in his stockings. He also admitted that while posing as a man of title he was absolutely destitute of all means.

His own explanation of his offenses was:

was:
"It was the biter catched. They tried to bite me, but I bit them. * * * Money came to me from all sides unasked because they all thought I would put them in my will and in this way they would get something out of the old man."

Cemetery to Be Enlarged. San Francisco, Oct. 27.—The National cemetery at the Presidio is to be enlarged. Nearly every available foot of ground within its present limits is now occupied and about 100 bodies of soldiers from the Orient remain unburied. Of the 2,444 soldiers who have met their death in the Philippines since the beginning of the war, nearly 900 are buried here.

Russia Short of Grain. St. Petersburg, Oct. 27.—According to the Official Messenger the grain short-age is not confined to the eastern prov-inces and Siberia. The provinces richest in cereals are actually suffering on ac-count of poor harvests. Grain is for-warded ahead of other merchandise and railway grain rates have been re-duced.
